

JOIN US FOR A FIRST ANNUAL
Community Carols
IN THE COMMONS

Hosted as a Celebration of the Season by the First Presbyterian Church of Klamath Falls

When: Sunday, December 19, 2021 from 6-7 p.m.

Where: The Commons Park (across from Gathering Grounds and the Gaucho Collective, kitty corner from Rodeo's Pizza). A beautiful space dedicated to a beautiful soul, the late Dr. Stephanie Van Dyke, who would love knowing this event was taking place to honor our community's commitment to one another and the blessings of the holidays. Look for the big, beautiful Christmas tree as a landmark.

Who: Bring your family, friends, neighbors, church congregation, someone lonely, someone fun, everyone, to lift up our voices together to honor the season and the reason for the season with some favorite, cherished carols. Let's light up the night with our voices and our laughter.

We will have song sheets, hot chocolate and a warm and welcoming environment to greet you. Dress warm, hold someone's hand, lift up and share your light by inviting people to join us!

We will sing, together, with lots of beautiful voices and plenty of not-so-great voices to celebrate all that we have faced in the pandemic and the shared hopes and aspirations for a bright and beautiful 2022!

Questions? Please call the First Presbyterian Church at 541.884.7781 or Holly Stork at 541.281.4577.

Please don't miss it. It just may be one of your most cherished memories of this holiday!
